DEFENDANTS UBER TECHNOLOGIES, INC. AND
 OTTOMOTTO LLC’S OBJECTIONS
 AND RESPONSES TO WAYMO’S
 FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
 (NOS. 1-91)

Trial Date: October 2, 2017

1 In accordance with Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants
2 Uber Technologies, Inc. and Ottomotto LLC (collectively “Defendants”) object and respond to
3 Plaintiff Waymo LLC’s First Set of Requests for Production of Documents, served on May 9, 4 2017.

5 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

6 Defendants make the following general responses and objections (“General Objections”)
7 to each definition, instruction, and request propounded in Plaintiff’s Requests for Production of 8 Documents. These General Objections are hereby incorporated into each specific response. The 9 assertion of the same, similar or additional objections or partial responses to the individual
10 requests does not waive any of Defendants’ General Objections.

11 1. Defendants object to each Request, Definition, or Instruction to the extent it seeks 12 or purports to impose obligations beyond or inconsistent with those imposed by the Federal Rules
13 of Civil Procedure, Federal Rules of Evidence, or the applicable rules and orders of this Court.

14 2. Nothing in these responses is an admission by Defendants of the existence,
15 relevance, or admissibility of any information, for any purpose. Defendants reserve all objections 16 as to competency, relevance, materiality, privilege, or admissibility related to the use of their
17 responses and any document or thing identified in their responses as evidence for any purpose
18 whatsoever in any subsequent proceeding in this action or any other action.

19 3. Defendants object to each Request to the extent it seeks information not within 20 Defendants’ possession, custody, or control and not kept by Defendants in the ordinary course of 21 business. Defendants will provide only relevant, non-privileged information that is within their 22 present possession, custody, or control and available after a reasonable investigation.

23 4. Defendants object to these Requests insofar as they purport to require Defendants 24 to search for information beyond that which is available after a reasonable search as it relates to 25 this case and the scope of discovery at this stage.

26 5. Defendants object to each Request to the extent that it calls for documents,
27 information, or things that are publicly available and therefore as accessible to Plaintiff as to 28 Defendants.

1           6.       Defendants object to each Request to the extent that it is overbroad and not
2 proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues in the action, the
3 amount in controversy, the parties’ relative access to relevant information, the parties’ resources,
4 the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the 5 proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.

6           7.       Defendants object to each Request to the extent that it is not limited in time.
7 Defendants will produce information from a reasonable time period as it relates to this case.

8           8.       Defendants object to each Request to the extent it seeks a response from persons or 9 entities that are not parties to the lawsuit and over whom Defendants have no control. Defendants
10 respond to the Requests on Defendants’ own behalf.

11          9.       To the extent any Request, Instruction, or Definition may be construed as calling
12 for disclosure of information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product immunity,
13 joint defense or common interest, or any other applicable privilege or protection, Defendants
14 hereby claim such privileges and immunities and object on such grounds. Defendants do not 15 waive, intentionally or otherwise, any attorney-client privilege, work-product immunity, joint 16 defense or common-interest privilege or any other privilege, immunity, or other protection that 17 may be asserted to protect information from disclosure.

18          8.       Defendants object to the Requests to the extent that they are compound, complex
19 and contain multiple subparts.

20          9.       Defendants object to the definitions of “WAYMO,” “GOOGLE,” “OTTO
21 TRUCKING,” “ODIN WAVE,” “TYTO,” “POUCH HOLDINGS,” “DOGWOOD LEASING,” 22 “APPARATE INTERNATIONAL,” and “STROZ” as overbroad, vague, and ambiguous because 23 Defendants do not know, for example, all “current and former employees, counsel, agents, 24 consultants, representatives, and any other persons acting on behalf of” each entity.

25          10.       Defendants object to the definition of “MISAPPROPRIATED MATERIALS” as 26 overbroad, vague, and ambiguous to the extent it includes materials unknown to Defendants or 27 that are otherwise not relevant to the issues in this litigation.

28          11.       Defendants object to Instruction No. 1 as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not

1 proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it purports to impose duties greater than those
2 set forth in Paragraphs 12 and 13 of the Court’s Supplemental Order to Order Setting Initial Case
3 Management Conference in Civil Cases Before Judge William Alsup (“Supplemental Order”).

4 12. Defendants object to Instruction Nos. 3 through 5 as overbroad, unduly
5 burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to the extent they purport to impose
6 duties greater than those set forth in Paragraph 14 of the Court’s Supplemental Order.

7 13. Defendants object to Instruction No. 7 as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not
8 proportional to the needs of the case, including to the extent it purports to impose duties greater
9 than those set forth in Paragraph 12 to the Court’s Supplemental Order.

10 14. Although Defendants have diligently complied with their discovery obligations at 11 this stage, their investigations in connection with this litigation are continuing. These responses
12 are limited to information obtained to date and are given without prejudice to Defendants’ right to 13 amend or supplement their responses after considering information obtained through further 14 discovery or investigation.

15 Subject to without waiving its General Objections, Defendants object and respond to the 16 Requests as follow:
